5. Testimonials—Applications should be accompanied by two testimonials of character by Gazetted Officers or Magistrates who are not related to the applicant. A Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe candidate should produce a certificate in original that he belongs to one of the scheduled castes or tribes (mentioning the caste or tribe) from the District Magistrate or Sub-Divisional Officer of the place in which his parents (or surviving parent) ordinarily reside on the date of his application, or if both his parents are dead, of the place in which he himself ordinarily resides otherwise than for the purpose of his own education.

6. Last date for applications—All applications must reach the Office of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India, 3, Mansingh Road, New Delhi not later than the date specified in the advertisement. Applications received after that date will not be considered.

7. Interviews—Candidates should be prepared to appear, if required, for an interview at their own expense before a Selection Board at any place which might be notified to them.

8. Period of Training—Selected apprentices will be given a preliminary training for a period of about twelve months in the Office of the Accountant General, Madras/ Nagpur or in any other selected place. This period may be increased or decreased with due regard to the progress made there. On the termination of the preliminary training, they will be posted for further training to the Accounts and Audit Offices selected by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India. As far as possible, the postings will be in the offices in which they will be eventually confirmed, if they qualify.

9. Departmental examinations and confirmations—The following general instructions have been laid down to regulate the training, examination and confirmation of the apprentices:—

- (a) Except when an apprentice is allotted and posted to the Defence Audit Branch after the preliminary training (in which case, sub-clause (c) below will apply), an apprentice will be required on the satisfactory completion of the preliminary training to appear for Part I, of the first S.A.S. Examination of the Civil, Postal, Railway or Commercial Audit Branch, as the case may be, held under the regulations prescribed by the Comptroller and Auditor General. He should pass Part I before he takes Part II of the Examination. Subject to the provision in the sub-clause (d) below, he will be allowed two chances for each part of the examination. He will be appointed (on probation) in the S.A.S. on passing both parts of the examination, subject to satisfactory reports on his conduct and work.
- (b) An apprentice is expected to pass both parts of the S.A.S. Examination within a period not exceeding three years from the commencement of apprenticeship in order to be eligible for confirmation.
- (c) If an apprentice is allotted and posted to the Defence Audit Branch on the satisfactory completion of the preliminary training, he will be required to appear for Parts I and II of the S.A.S. Examination held under the regulations prescribed by the Controller General of Defence Accounts or such examinations in substitution thereof as may be prescribed by the Comptroller and Auditor General. He should pass Part I before he takes Part II of the examination. He will normally be allowed two chances for each part of the examination. He will be appointed (on probation) in the S.A.S. on passing both the parts, subject to satisfactory reports on his conduct and work.
- (d) If an apprentice is unsuccessful in Part I of the S.A.S. Examination within the number of chances ordinarily allowed for it, or having passed Part I is unsuccessful in Part II of the Examination within the number of chances allowed for it, or exhausts the prescribed chances in either of the parts by omission to avail himself of any of the available chances, he shall be discharged or may be offered the post of an Upper Division Clerk. The Comptroller and Auditor General will, however, if he considers that there are special circumstances justifying the concession, allow at his discretion one further chance in either or both of the parts and in that case the apprentice shall be discharged or may be offered a clerical post on his being unsuccessful in the additional attempt or if he fails to utilise the further chance granted. If he is absorbed as a clerk, his pay and position in the clerical grade will be determined by the Comptroller and Auditor General.
- (e) The period of probation mentioned in sub-clauses (a) and (c) above will be one year, after which, the apprentice will be confirmed with effect from the date of commencement of probation subject to satisfactory reports on his conduct and work and fulfilment of the conditions laid down in sub-clause (f) below. The confirmation will not, however give any special claims to seniority vis-a-vis other persons who are already officiating in the S.A.S. in the office or Branch in which the apprentice is confirmed, and who will be confirmed subsequently in the S.A.S. The seniority of the apprentice will be regulated by the orders of the Comptroller and Auditor General.
- (f) Confirmation, and increment after the stage of Rs. 245 in the S.A.S. scale, will depend upon the apprentice's passing Examinations in Hindi to be prescribed by the Comptroller and Auditor General.

10. Posting—Apprentices are being recruited mainly for the offices of the Accountants General, Bombay, Assam, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan and the Comptroller, Saurashtra. Apprentices not willing to be posted to the above-mentioned offices will be discharged. On confirmation, a candidate will ordinarily be required to serve in the Accounts or Audit Office in which he is confirmed. He will, however, be liable to transfer to any branch or office under the control of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India during the period of apprenticeship as well as after confirmation, on terms to be decided by the Comptroller and Auditor General. Candidates will also be liable to spells of overseas service for Audit and Accounts work on terms to be decided by the Comptroller and Auditor General.

11. After the separation of Audit and Accounts, the services of an apprentice may be utilised either in the Accounts Offices under the Central or State Governments or in the statutory Audit Offices under the Comptroller and Auditor General according to the exigencies of service.

12. Execution of a Bond—All apprentices at the time of appointment will be required to give an undertaking to the effect that during the period of their apprenticeship they will not apply for any appointment elsewhere or apply for any examination in respect of other posts.

13. Scales of Pay—During training and so long as they are not appointed on probation to the S.A.S., the apprentices will get a pay of Rs. 150 p.m. plus the dearness and other allowances at the scale fixed by the Government of India from time to time. With effect from the date of appointment (on probation) to the S.A.S., they will be eligible for pay in the scale of Rs. 200—15—380—EB—20—500.

Note—On posting to an Accounts and Audit Office, either for training or otherwise, the Head of Department in relation to that office will exercise all powers in the same way, as he would have done, had the appointment as an apprentice been ab initio made by him.
